About You:

- What drives and motivates you:

Being a positive influence in my organization, family and within people around me. Anything I can learn, a new experience everyday, is what motivates me to put myself in those situations and be challenged by something I don't know and that learning about it makes me better as a person, professional.

- Career Goals:

Keep learning and accumulate experience in my field of study and work, finance, management, entrepreneurship. Be the best professional I can be around my peers, achieving my goals and helping people around me achieve theirs. I admire people who have a positive impact in their industries, societies, and so I would like to contribute in every possible way to grow my business and deliver the best product to my clients.

- Fun Fact, Hobbies:

Golf, hiking, reading, biking, going on trips and spending time with my family and close friends. I dream of taking 5 months to hike the Pacific Crest Trail through California, Oregon and Washington.

- Why UNC?

Because it is an institution with a successful history of education in a very high level. It represents a very important academic and personal challenge for me. I loved North Carolina from the first time I visited, getting to live in Chapel Hill is going to be a special time for me.

Marco Beviglia

Nationality: Italian

KENAN-FLAGLER
BUSINESS SCHOOL

About You:

- What drives and motivates you:

I decided to apply to an Exchange Program at UNC Kenan-Flagler Business School because I strongly believe that studying in such an international environment would be a way to meet new cultures, enrich my personality, and also increase my contact networks.

- Career Goals:

My career goal is to take up a role as policy analyst in a central bank or other governmental national or supra-national institution.

- Fun Fact, Hobbies:

I am a former practitioner of Karate and besides that I have practiced many sports in my life, including gym, swimming, football and tennis. My main hobbies are travelling, reading and listening to music.

- Why UNC?

During my studies I have developed strong interest in the field of macroeconomics, and I believe that studying at UNC Kenan-Flagler Business School would enable me to continue my study for an additional semester of areas in which I am particularly interested, more profoundly. More in particular, this Exchange Program addresses my needs of broadening my economic thinking not only at a European, but also at a global level, thus allowing me to increase my knowledge, improve my skills and make me much more attractive to potential employers operating in the fields of my interest.

About You:

- What drives and motivates you:

Since I was a child I have always been driven by an insatiable desire to know deeply the human being as the measure of all things and what could be the right balance between the human being and the world in which he lives. This pushes me with curiosity to analyze daily the behavior of people and how choices are made in both economic and social spheres.

- Career Goals:

My dream is to become a full-fledged entrepreneur who can successfully work in different fields, in particular finance and agribusiness.

- Fun Fact, Hobbies:

At the age of 12 I started playing chess, a sport that has contributed on my person in an extremely positive way. I was captain and coach of my high school team with which we achieved outstanding results including 3rd place overall in the national championship in Spoleto in 2011. I love cooking pizza and pasta and listening to classical music.

- Why UNC?

I chose UNC because I believe it is one of the best universities in the world, and that from the exchange with the international profiles that will be present in the class I will surely grow my vision of the world and work. Maybe even create some new business activities

KENAN-FLAGLER
BUSINESS SCHOOL

About You:

- What drives and motivates you:

I'm a very outgoing person that loves to meet new people with different experiences than mine. For my Junior year of college, I was in an international program, and I want to experience again studying with people from all over the world.

- Career Goals:

My career goals are still uncertain, I am open to discovering new paths and opportunities. I'm however currently working in a consulting company in digital marketing. I am considering working in consulting for the beginning of my career as I really enjoy my current internship. I would also like to work abroad at some point in my career.

- Fun Fact, Hobbies:

I like going out on adventures, especially outdoor activities. I love traveling as well. Finally, I love watching movies and talking about cinema.

My fun fact is that from the age of 13 to 16 I used to live in South Carolina with my family.

- Why UNC?

I chose to apply at UNC as an exchange student for its good academic reputation which I believe will be a good academic challenge personally and an advantage for my career. Moreover, as mentioned earlier I lived in South Carolina, and I remember very well visiting the area of Chapel Hill with my family. I want to go back to this region to reminisce with some of my childhood memories.
